If you enjoy Jeopardy on television, you're going to love this!

The Historical Association and the Brickyard Brewing Company (BBC) are teaming up to present Lewiston Jeopardy – a fun and fast contest that will showcase local residents competing for prizes and bragging rights.

All the clues will be about Lewiston and our area, both current and historical.

There will be general audience participation but there will also be competing teams.

There will be four teams each composed of three contestants – twelve players in all. There will even be a final Jeopardy question where teams can bet it all!

If you would like to be on one of the teams ($50 donation per person, $150 per team) let us know soon since team positions will go fast. You may want get together with your colleagues, friends or neighbors to form a team.
